

For those of you who plan to attend Nancy's memorial/celebration of life service Saturday Coat and tie are not required. You will see some suit and tie, some jeans and sport shirt, and everything in between. Start with business casual. I'm bringing my El Camino, since I'm loaning my dd to out-of-towners. It would be cool to give it some Chevelle company.

Thanks to all of you for your kind consideration, and the way you all supported me last week at Wichita Burner.

WACO Family and Friends.

There are a couple of things coming up this Saturday that we need to remember.

First is the Memorial for Nancy Koenig and then the Pontiac Uprising.

Here is the information on the Memorial and way down below is the information on the Pontiac Uprising.

Surprise news - Nancy passed away suddenly last Sunday. If any of the club care to join, you're invited to her memorial service on Saturday, 26 September, 10:00 am at Risen Savior Lutheran Church, 6770 E 34th St.

Several WACO members did make it out to Linda's place to look at and buy stuff, Thank You. Linda has said that she would like to donate left over Chevelle parts to WACO. The plan is to go back out to Linda's on Monday the 28th around 9:30 and see what is left over. She would like for us to show up, buy some parts from her and then what is left she wants to donate. So if you get the chance, come on out, buy something and then help load up the rest of the stuff.

She still has other stuff for sale including house stuff and tools. There might be something there that you can't live without. 😊

Many of you might remember Bill & Linda Schweers. As you know Bill passed away 10 or more years ago and left Linda with a lot of stuff to get rid of. She is finally getting around to doing that. She has a small shed with a bunch of 69 Chevelle stuff in it including a El Camino tailgate. She also has a hood, deck lid and doors for a Chevelle. The doors might be for an El Camino, I don't remember for sure. There is a lot of other miscellaneous stuff in the shed that she wants gone. She also has another big shed / building full of tools, saws and a bunch of other stuff. Everything in the house is also for sale, and there is a bunch of stuff crammed into the house. If you are looking for a bargain on stuff then go to her place for the big sale on Saturday the 19th starting at 9:00 am and buy something, it would really help her out. Her address is 1408 N Argonia Rd, Suppesville (Milton?) Kansas. It is about 15 miles or more West of Wichita on K-42.

Let your friends and family know about these events and invite them to attend.
